

Carsington Fishing Report

28th April 2014

It's been a windy week for fishing however still very successful resulting in a rod average of 9.80. Buzzers have been the top fly of the week with many fish being taken off and close to the surface.

The returns have shown many browns and blues being caught and returned ready for a second chance!

The picture above shows a 4lb rainbow which is over wintered and probably several seasons old.
